SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK 500 EASTER HATS WILL BE SOLD AT SPECAIL PRICES

Last week hundreds of persons visited our large millinery and picked out their Easter Hat. This week there will be a big rush. Come in today and make your selection. We have the largest and most selected stock, and if we don't have anything to suit you we have expert milliners who will make what you want. No other store can suit you so well. We have added 40 new Styles in addition to large showing we already have. Plenty of clerks, plenty of milliners. Come and be our guest this week--We can save you from 25 per cent to 50 per cent on your Easter Hat. Easter Waists, Skirts, and Jackets. At lowest prices, the Latest and Best is here. Buy early.

M. JANAVITZ, Monessen's Leading Milliner 431 Schoonmaker Avenue

HOLY WEEK ENDS FASTING

Also Closes Period of Prayer and Ancient Ceremonies by Good Catholics.--Good Friday Tomorrow.

With the passing of Easter Sunday the observance of Lent by the faithful Roman Catholics is at an end. Last Sunday what is known as holy week, was ushered in, and began an even stricter observance of the regulations of lent than before.

In this week fall Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday, each day being peculiarly sanctified as anniversary days of the crucifixion of Christ. Each day is commemorated with solemn ceremonies. Yesterday saw the beginning of the ceremony of the tenebrae, when amid the prayers of the faithful, the illuminated triangle was reared before the alter, the lighted candles being afterward extinguished one by one. In all the churches the stations of the cross will be recited each night the rest of the week. Today which is known as Holy or Maundy Thursday, it being the day of the institution of the last supper, will be commemorated by all good catholics in the doing of acts of charity and humility.

Tomorrow, Good Friday, is the day of the nuhlated mass when in commemoration of the death of Christ the church mourns. The alters being draped in black and the faithful approach to kiss the crucifix. It will also be observed in the Episcopal and Lutheran Churches with solemnity and banks and stock exchanges throughout the country will be closed all day. Holy Saturday is the day the fire and the paschal candle are blessed Unavoidable.

In the absence of Mrs Carrie Moore, Rev M M. Allbeck will this evening oblige the W. C. T. U. committee by delivering an ad dress on "Woman Suffrage." Those having heard Rev. Allbeck know what a strong, forcible speaker he is and the large audience which will no doubt greet him will be treated to something unusually good in the lecture line

Washington Men Home.

William C Robison, former Register of wills of Washington county, J. M Mc Farland and Mr. Meade, also of Washington have returned from Cuba, where they have been for the past month making preparations for planting a sugar cane plantation.

Will Give Euchre And Dance.

The young men's Catholic Club, of Charleroi, will hold a Euchre and Dance on Easter Monday for the benefit of St. Jerone Church. Euchre at Savings & Trust Building will begin at 8.30 Dance in Bank of Charleroi hall. Tickets Gentlemen 75c Ladies 25c. 40 3t

Delivered Lecture.

Kaaro Murros, of Hancock, Mich., delivered an address to the Finnish people of this place last evening in the Socialist hall on Sixth street hill. Murros left today for Allenport, where he will speak this evening.

Here And Now.

Is the time to have your curtains done up for spring house-cleaning: Large size 40c per pair, Medium 30c per pair, Ruffled 30c per pair. Send postal and I will call to any part of town.

Wished It Was Saturday Night.

One of our best known manufacturers, whose business for years has been done by traveling salesmen, made up his mind to call personally upon his New York city trade as an excuse to get to New York a place he had not visited in twenty years The gorgeousness of the hotels made a great impression upon him The best was none too good, as he has plenty of money, and he is not afraid to spend it when away from home, so he put up at one of the palatial hostelries and had a suit of rooms When he returned he told his friends of the magnificence of the place, the fine furniture, the beautiful decorations and the finely appointed bathroom "Why" he said, "the floor was tiled the walls were tiled away up to the ceiling the tub was porcelain there were plenty of towels hot and cold running water, and and —by gosh I only wished it was Saturday night!"—Boston Herald

The Tinsel Maker of Delhi.

Here is an artist's pretty description of a tinsel maker in Delhi India "The silken thread from a ball under the worker's feet as he squats on the ground runs over the hook and is attached to the spindle One rapid sweep of the latter along the worker's thigh sets it going and both the slender supple hands are free one for the thread one for the reel of tinsel, which in a flash shoots upward to arm's length coiled like a snake about the spinning thread The sunlight and the gold tinsel together flash up the yellow silken thread seeming to set it on fire."

CZAR PAUL'S WIG.

An Officer Tweaked It and Won a Bet and Promotion.

Paul, the eccentric czar of Russia assassinated in 1801, was very particular as to his dress and considered trifling matters as of supreme importance. This peculiarity was once taken advantage of by an officer of the guards, Major Vaksel, to win a bet. The major, the wildest joker in the army, wagered several hundred rubles that he would tweak the tail of the emperor's wig on parade.

The very next day the emperor happened to be present at an early parade and, as destiny ruled it, took a position for a moment immediately in front of the daring major. Breathless with excitement and terror, Vaksel's companions beheld that rash officer's right hand steal slowly from his side, rise to the level of the czar's neck and give the wig's hanging tail a most decided tweak.

In an instant the emperor's face, pale with fury, was turned upon Vaksel's countenance, which, however, only reflected an expression of childlike innocence, mingled with the most deferential astonishment.

"Who dared to do that?" asked the enraged czar, his eyes giving flashing evidence that his most dangerous mood was upon him.

"I did, your majesty," said Vaksel, who, however his heart may have fluttered, managed to preserve outwardly an unruffled calm, together with an expression of innocent surprise. "It was crooked, your majesty," he added, in a confidential undertone. "I straightened it for fear the younger officers should see."

Paul's countenance cleared at once. He stared fixedly, however, at Vaksel's innocent looking face for some seconds. Vaksel admitted afterward that this was the trying moment, and he had said to himself, "If I waver I'm lost!" Then the czar spoke, and spoke so that all might hear.

"I thank you, colonel," he said.

If ever a step in rank was gained by the purest effrontery it was so acquired on this occasion, and Vaksel left the field, not only promoted to a coveted position in the guards, but richer by many hundred rubles as the result of his wager.

THE SACRED LOTUS.

There Are Pretty Legends of Song and Story About Its Fruit.

Concerning the rich fruit of the lotus, which grew luxuriantly in the Nile, many charming legends have been told. It was believed that it was so delightful that those who ate of it would never leave the spot where it grew, but for it would abandon home and friends to spend their lives in a dream of serene delight. Homer, in the "Odyssey," mentions the lotus eaters who lived on the northern coast of Africa and records their attempts to detain the followers of Ulysses by giving them the fruits of the lotus to eat, so that they should never wish to leave the spot where it grew.

The same poetical idea is known to the Arabs, who call it the "fruit of destiny," which is to be eaten in paradise, and it is on this foundation that Tennyson built his charming poem of the "Lotus Eaters." This mythical lotus has been identified by several botanists with that indigenous to Tunis, which is a thorny shrub, with berries of the size of an olive.

Mungo Park found a species of lotus in Central America bearing berries of a delicious taste, which, on being dried and pounded, made very wholesome and pleasant bread. The lotus fruit found in Tunis has a stimulating, almost intoxicating effect, and it is therefore probable that this plant furnished the foundation of the ancient legends.

The sacred lotus of the Egyptians was a fine aquatic plant, dedicated to Osiris and Isis and regarded in Egyptian delineations as signifying the creation of the world. Distinct from this lotus was that known as the blue lotus of the Nile, also a sacred plant. Both these species of lotus occur frequently as religious symbols and decorations in the temples.

The Name of the Vatican.

The Mons Vaticanus is sometimes said to have received its name from vaticinium, an oracle or prophecy, for tradition says that Numa chose the Vatican hill as a sacred place from which to declare to the people the messages he received from the gods. It is not, however, one of the seven hills on which ancient Rome was built, but forms a part of the ridge beginning with the Janiculus and ending with Monte Mario, all of which was outside the ancient limits of the city. In our day the name is applied only to the immense pontifical palace adjacent to and connected with the basilica of St. Peter's.

Constantinople.

Constantinople, called by the Turks Stamboul or Istamboul, was originally the ancient city of Byzantium. In 330 B. C. the Emperor Constantine made it the capital of the Roman empire and called it after his own name. The city lies on an arm of the sea called the Golden Horn and is protected by a great wall built by the Byzantine emperors.

Cruel.

Miss Passay—So she's twenty-five today. I guess it would surprise her if I should tell her I was the same age. Miss Peppery—Oh, no; she knows that, of course. Miss Passay—That I am twenty-five? Miss Peppery—No; that you were.

A sound discretion is not so much indicated by never making a mistake as by never repeating it.—Bovee.

A Melancholy Career.

A young man who will some day inherit an enormous fortune and who is being brought up as a "gentleman" was interviewed the other day. Among other things he said, "If I did not have my career cut out for me, if I were to lose my fortune, I should turn to the law and study some phases of it that interest me greatly."

Probably if the young man were actually thrown on his own resources he would resort to something less entirely "elegant" and more useful. But, that aside, what is this "career" that he fancies he has "cut out" for him? To take care of his property—that is, to spend his life at an occupation similar to that of a watchman or a policeman, but far more mechanical and less exciting. What a miserable, what a melancholy conception of a career! To spend one's life at just making money is poor enough use of the one chance to live; to spend it at watching a heap of money—what dullness, what dreariness! And in a world teeming with opportunities to live intensely, vividly, interestingly, usefully!—Saturday Evening Post.

A Pair of Coddlers.

A man with a curious fondness for skullcaps was the Abbe de St. Martin, who, in the seventeenth century, made himself ridiculous by his vagaries. He always wore nine of these articles to keep off the cold and, furthermore, nine pairs of stockings. His mode of passing the night was more remarkable still. He caused to be constructed for himself a bed of ricks, beneath which was a furnace, so arranged that he could regulate it to the degree of warmth he might require, and his bed was fitted with only a very small opening, through which the abbe used to creep when he retired to rest at night.

Even more ludicrous was the contrivance which the great French mathematician, Fourier, designed and used for the protection of his health. He incased himself in a species of box, the interior of which, by some mechanical means, was kept at the only temperature at which he felt he could live without inconvenience. While enveloped in this clumsy affair he was necessarily confined to one spot, but he provided means for the freedom of his head and hands. Even the ills of asthma and rheumatism, one would have thought, were preferable to existence under such circumstances as this, but the French mathematician, we must believe, was of a different opinion.—London Standard.

Vitality of a Frog's Heart.

There is no living creature, according to a Philadelphia surgeon, that has a heart with so much vitality as a frog, especially the species commonly known as the water frog. It is generally known that the aquatic frog will survive for months after the hind legs have been removed. Of course he cannot hop about as he could before losing his principal means of transit, but his fore legs help him to crawl wherever he desires to go. When I began to learn surgery I made a special dissection of a frog one day. I had the various parts of the body on a table and discovered that life was extinct within a few hours in every organ except the heart. The heart showed valvular motion for a day after it had been severed entirely from the body. I am not aware that any other creature's heart is possessed of such vitality.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Hammers.

Hammers are represented on the monuments of Egypt twenty centuries before our era. They greatly resembled the hammers now in use, save that there were no claws on the back for the extraction of nails. The first hammer was undoubtedly a stone held in the hand. Claw hammers were invented some time during the middle ages. Illuminated manuscripts of the eleventh century represent carpenters with claw hammers. Hammers are of all sizes, from the dainty instruments used by the jeweler, which weigh less than half an ounce, to the gigantic hammer of shipbuilding establishments, some of which weigh as much as fifty tons and have a falling force of from 50 to 100. Every trade has its own hammer and its own way of using it.

Legend of Sambur Lake.

One of the features of Jeypore, in India, is the wonderful Sambur salt lake, concerning which there is a curious legend. The story runs that an old fakir long ago told one of the rajahs that if he wanted to be rich he should ride a horse as far as he could go without once looking back, and the land as far as he could travel would become a field of silver, always provided he did not turn. He rode for thirty miles, and then, curiosity overcoming him, he looked back, with the result that instead of the promised field of silver he found a lake of salt.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Wouldn't any woman be happy,
After years of backache suffering,
Days of misery, nights of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles,
To find relief and cure?
No reason why any reader
Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I was doctoring for kidney and liver trouble, but without benefit. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular, and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed 100 pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Jackson will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists; price, 50 cents per box.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for Coughs and Colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. Tastes good and is harmless.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The tar that is contained in Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is harmless. It is not coal tar, but is obtained from the pine trees of our own native forests. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar is the best remedy for colds because it acts on the bowels—thus expelling all colds from the system. Bee's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar, and is best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, lung and bronchial affections. Sold by C. A. Light.

Don't frown—look pleasant. If you are suffering from indigestion or sour stomach, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hon. Jake Moore, of Atlanta, Ga., says: "I suffered more than 20 years with indigestion. A friend recommended Kodol. It relieved me in one day and I now enjoy better health than for many years." Kodol digests what you eat, relieves sour stomach, gas on stomach, belching, etc.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

A liquid cold cure for children that is pleasant, harmless and effective is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. Superior to all other cough syrups or cold remedies because it acts on the bowels. An ideal remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough and all curable lung and bronchial affections in child or adult. Pleasant to take. Sold by C. A. Light.

If you are troubled with Piles and can't find a cure, try Witch Hazel Salve, but be sure you get that made by E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago. It is the Original. If you have used Witch Hazel Salve without being relieved it is probable that you got hold of one of the many worthless counterfeits that are sold on the reputation of the genuine De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

The gums and resins obtained from pine trees have long been recognized as highly beneficial in the treatment of backache, kidney and bladder troubles. Pine-ules is the name of a new medicine, the principle ingredients of which come from the pine forests of our own native land. Sold by C. A. Light.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, and draws out the inflammation. It should be kept on hand for immediate use.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

It is not difficult to relieve blind bleeding, itching or protruding piles with ManZan, the great pile remedy. It is put up in collapsible tubes with nozzle, and may be introduced and applied at the seat of the trouble. Stops pain instantly. Sold by C. A. Light.

Indigestion is much of a bugbear. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, puffing, palpitating and frowning. Kodol Digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

For bloating, belching, indigestion, etc., eat a Ring's Dyspepsia Tablet after meals. Sold by C. A. Light.

The best safeguard against headache, constipation and liver troubles is De Witt's Little Early Risers. Keep a vial of these famous little pills in the house and take a dose at bedtime when you feel that the stomach and bowels need cleansing. They don't gripe.—Sold by R. W. Beck.

Salve! Salve! Spread the Salve, but let it be Pine Salve, natures remedy for cuts, burns, sores, etc. Sold by C. A. Light.

Diphtheria, sore throat croup. Instant relief, permanent cure. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug tore.

For headache, constipation, etc., Dale's Little Liver Pills are the best. They cleanse and tonic the liver. Sold by C. A. Light.

WEBSTER NOTES.

G. M. Snyder spent last night in Fayette City.

Miss Cassie McClay spent Tuesday shopping in Monongahela.

O. C. Thompson, the operator, spent Tuesday evening with friends at Newell.

The house occupied by Harrison Biles which was damaged by fire recently, was repaired yesterday.

Mrs. White, of Bunola, who has been visiting her brother, Barney White, returned home Tuesday.

James Campbell, John Sarver and O. C. Thompson attended "For His Brother's Crime" at the Monessen opera house last evening.

C. C. Lewis, assistant purchasing agent for the Pittsburg Coal Co., spent last evening in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. L McMahan. Mr. Lewis has handed in his resignation to take effect at once and will go to Cleveland, Ohio.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

One can easily tell that Easter will soon be here by the number of eggs our merchants are receiving daily. Piles of crates can be seen in front of almost every grocery.

Mrs. D. H. Hobert and children left today for Terral, O., where she will join her husband, they having recently purchased a farm there and will make that their place of future residence.

Miss Lucile Reppert, of Greensboro, is visiting her friend, Miss Maud Markell at the American House. Both Miss Markell and Miss Reppert attend Wilson College at Chambersburg and are home on a short vacation.

While driving stumps in the Larimer mines recently, a cave in occurred which resulted in Pringle Hardi being crushed to death, while Wm. Daugherty sustained a broken leg. Hardi's wife and children are now enroute from Scottland.

The "curfew" idea is certainly a good one and should be made a law at once. It may do away with the crowds of children of all sizes and ages who congregate on our streets at night and make things miserable until a late hour almost every evening.

Mrs. I. F. Brewer and family who for the past three years have resided at Fifth and Schoonmaker avenue, will leave in a few weeks for Richmond, Va., where they will make their future home. They have made many friends while in Monessen who are sorry to see them leave.

It was erroneously stated in yesterday's issue that the entertainment to be given by the Baptist choir Easter Sunday night would be held in the opera house hall. The entertainment however will be held in the opera house proper, in order to accommodate the large crowd which is expected to attend.

Letter to Frantz & Boyd.

Monessen, Pa.

Dear Sir: Clothing is just like paint. It fits or it don't. It wears or it don't; turns weather and water or not; and goes out of fashion.

What do we wear clothes for? Did you ever think of it? Different persons have different reasons, no doubt, but one paints Devoe for beauty, to be in the fashion, and keep out water.

Fashion says paint: we all paint. There is beauty in paint; we paint a good deal for that. And buildings are costly and fashionable; put on a waterproof two or three coats of paint, and your buildings last as long as you keep them dry. It costs nothing to paint; it costs your buildings not to.

Devoe is the paint that lasts; disappointing paints are the paints that cost.

Yours truly

AN EXCELLENT COMPANY.

Play At Monessen Opera House Last Night One of the Best of the Season.

A large and enthusiastic audience witnessed the initial production of the Ethel Desmond company in the Monessen opera house last night, and the universal verdict of both play and company was that the former was one of the strongest and most entertaining detective society dramas seen here, and the company the equal of any stock or repertoire attraction on the road.

"For His Brother's Crime; Or, Sherdan Keen, Detective" made a great hit. The play was replete with bright dialogue; the comedy was clean cut and truly humorous; the situations of an intense dramatic nature, and the story of the play interpreted by an excellent company.

Miss Ethel Desmond appeared as Rose Winters, an adventuress, and showed, remarkoble versatility. She won instant favor by her singing and it is doubtful if the always popular ballads, "Good night, Beloved, Good Night" and "The Last Rose of Summer" ever received sweeter or more artistic interpretation than given them last evening by Miss Desmond.

Walter M. Ebel, the author of last nights play, appeared as Sheridan Keen and won great success. His method of observation and deduction were well taken and could be used to advantage by local sleuths. James A. Sullivan, as Huntingdon Wright, the society rogue, proved to be a daring villian and a good actor, as did also Henry Marcus in the dual roles of Herbert Hastings and "Bill" Stone.

Dottie Green as Gertrude Hastings not only proved to be a pretty and accomplished actress, but her singing and especially dancing, was a revelation and success.

Estella Lynne as the busy widow, and Grace Fortney, as Mary Elkins added to the strength of the cast, while Irvin Selmeyer played "Dick" Hastings with dash and good humor. L. L. Green as the "coon" proved to be one of the best black faced comedians seen in Monessen this season.

The magic of Prof. Marcus is well worth witnessing. Tonight this company presents a society-western drama, "The Great Diamond Robbery" featuring Prof. Marcus' great illusion entitled "Gone". This company is one of the best seen here this season and deserve the most liberal patronage.

Eased His Conscience.

In an ordinary restaurant, according to the London Chronicle, a waiter was surprised at being asked one Friday with Ireland's fulmitable smile for "divtled whale." "Is it filleted shark that ye have, thin?" pursued the Irishman on being refused this delicacy. Again receiving a reply in the negative, he tried once more. "Thin ye can bring me some roasted porpoise," he said. The waiter showed signs of becoming restive, and Paddy sank back in his seat and heaved a sigh of contentment. "I'll take some roast beef and vegetables," he said cheerfully, "and sure ye'll not be for saying that I didn't ask ye for fish."

Creeping Salt.

Here is something in the course of natural phenomena that will interest and instruct the little folk if they look into it curiously: Into a tumbler half full of water dissolve just as much common table salt as can be held in solution. Let it stand for a few days and see how the salt creeps out of the water, up the inside of the glass and down the outside—just like a thing of life trying to escape from its environment. And when all the salt is apparently out of prison the water remains as salty as before! It is a pretty demonstration.
